Our Privacy Policy

John Addley Limited is committed to protecting the privacy of all visitors to this website. All information collected is used purely to enable services provided. We will not communicate with you unless you expressly request it and will not share, sell or divulge any personal information without your permission.

What information do we collect?

Information is collected purely to track visitor use of this website and to compile statistical reports on website activity. This information is collected using cookies, which are small text files placed on your computer to collect standard internet log information and visitor behaviour information in anonymous form, such as repeat visits, time spent on pages and pages of interest.

For further information visit www.aboutcookies.org or www.allaboutcookies.org.

You can set your browser not to accept cookies and the above websites tell you how to remove cookies from your browser. However, in a few cases some of our website features may consequently not function.

How do we use the information about you?

We will not share your information with any other companies.

We want to make sure that your personal information is accurate and up to date. You may ask us to correct or remove information you think is inaccurate.

This website contains links to other websites. This Privacy Policy only applies to this website so when you link to other websites you should read the relevant Privacy Policies.
